DAHLGREN DUCK

For more than 40 years Dahlgren Duck has been widely recognised as one of the world's pre-eminent experts in luxury tableware and bespoke design projects. Whether outfitting superyachts, private jets, palaces, private residences or luxury hospitality venues, the highly skilled team always strives to understand every detail and nuance of a project so it can bring each client's unique vision to life.

Dahlgren Duck curates and sources the very best in luxury furniture, fixtures and equipment, china, crystal, flatware and decorative items from the crème de la crème of independent artisans and luxury design houses. With a network of trusted contacts at its disposal, the company collaborates with the world's most talented craftspeople and artisans to create one-of-a-kind bespoke items for its clients, be it a crystal chandelier, custom-made and hand-painted porcelain or silverware inset with precious gemstones.

The sheer variety of its offering is awe-inspiring and it sources the most coveted ranges and items from design houses such as Hermès, Raynaud, Saint-Louis, Baccarat, Lalique and Bottega Veneta. There are no limits to its dedication in providing a seamless, luxury service and this includes providing the highest-quality operational supplies to its clientele. Dahlgren Duck understands that a superyacht is an outward expression of the owner's taste in every tiny detail, from bed linen and china to cabin finishes and crew uniforms. With years of experience working with the world's leading shipbuilders, the company knows the work process of the yards and always makes sure work phases are completed on time and as designed.

Dahlgren Duck revels in offering a truly global service thanks to its multiple distribution centres and international network. Alongside its inspirational showrooms and design centres in Dallas, London and Montreal, Dahlgren Duck has offices in Denver and Dubai, as well as a state-of-the-art technology platform. Ease for new and existing customers is at the heart of this platform which enables users not only to view new, inspiring selections and review design proposals but also to manage their account and place orders for replacements. Dahlgren Duck's extensive experience, knowledge of each client's project and this clever analytical technology allows it to proactively anticipate when items like bed and bath linens may need to be replaced.

The combination of years of experience, an extensive network of luxury partners and highly skilled craftsmen and the embracing of new technology allows Dahlgren Duck to offer unrivalled customer service and a truly unique luxury offering to its discerning clients in the most efficient and streamlined way.
